Michael Winslow: 10,000 reasons to head to Glasgow International Comedy Festival

If you're on the hunt for the one act guaranteed to surprise at this year's Glasgow International Comedy Festival, then pencil in a date with Hollywood star Michael Winslow.

Performing at the King's Theatre on March 22, this superstar American – better known as Motor Mouth Jones in the Police Academy franchise - sold out an entire 23 night run in Scotland just seven months ago after comedy lovers became enamoured with his sound effect abilities.

His performance in Glasgow is restricted to a single show, and with tickets now limited, fans keen to see the comedian should act quickly.

A real vocal gymnast, US Office star Winslow specialises in the frenzy of Hendrix and the terror of Darth Vader, as well as a multitude of other legendary figures from both Hollywood and real-life.

After appearing in Spaceballs and National Lampoon's Robo Doc, he showed off his versatility by voicing parts in Family Guy, King of the Hill, The Simpsons, and cult classic Robot Chicken.

Not your average stand-up comedian, Winslow's quirky charm and ability to deliver voice impressions on-demand sets him apart from the crowd – making him a hot ticket for Glasgow International Comedy Festival.

See Michael Winslow in Man of 10,000 Sound Effects at the King's Theatre on March 22. The show starts at 7.30pm.

Purchase your tickets for the show by calling 0844 395 4005 or visiting ticketSOUP.com. Full details for all shows can be found at www.glasgowcomedyfestival.com.

Ends

For further information, interview, or show review requests, please contact:

Beattie Communications:

Julie Yeudall / 01698 787845 07730415019 / julie.yeudall@onlybeattie.com

Chris McGhee/ 01698 787844 / chris.mcghee@onlybeattie.com

Jennifer Cauley/01698 787862 /jennifer.cauley@onlybeattie.com