Glasgow has a fantastic year round calendar of events with something for everyone. For more information visit peoplemakeglasgow.com/whats-on
Welcome from Councillor David McDonald, Depute Leader of Glasgow City Council and Chair of Glasgow Life

Everyone who appreciates brilliant comedy will know Glasgow is a city that loves to laugh. Our sense of humour is unique to the city and shared by everyone who lives in Glasgow. We have a deeply developed sense of the funny things in life which has produced some of the greatest stand-up comedians of all time. The Whyte & Mackay Glasgow International Comedy Festival brings some of the finest comedy talent in the world together in the same programme as emerging performers. That signature mix combines to make a visit to Glasgow for the festival an unforgettable one which brings people to the city from across the UK and from abroad. Whatever makes you laugh, Glasgow will have something unique to enjoy over the 18 days of the festival. Whether you are enjoying performers for the first time or seeing the latest show from one of your favourites, I hope you have a great time in the city and that you will be back to enjoy another festival in the city before long.

Best wishes Councillor David McDonald

Introduction from Sarah Watson, Festival Director, Whyte & Mackay Glasgow International Comedy Festival

Welcome to the amazing 18th year of the festival! What a cracking year it is for comedy with the top household names rubbing shoulders with the best up and coming talent in a programme which spans everything from kid's comedy shows to sketches, the best of character comedy and late night festival clubs. Trevor Noah, Steve Martin, Martin Short, Stewart Lee, Frankie Boyle, Arabella Weir, Jimmy Carr and Jerry Sadowitz, are some of the top names to look out for joined by a host of Scottish talent - Des Clarke, Craig Hill, Janey Godley, Raymond Meams, Ashley Storrie, Fern Brady and Jim Smith. Follow us on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram or register at glasgowcomedyfestival.com to be the first to get latest news and special offers. Have a great time!

Sarah Watson, Festival Director

Introduction from Ruairí Perry, Head of Blended Whisky Brands, Whyte and Mackay

For the 3rd year running it’s an absolute pleasure to partner with the Glasgow International Comedy Festival! We’ve had a very busy year as a brand, having celebrated our 175th year by launching our new look smoother bottle and also a ‘lighter spirit drink’ at 21.5% ABV - ideal for those looking for a brilliant tasting spirit but with lower alcohol. There’s nothing light about the programme for this year’s festival - its packed again with top class acts from Scotland and around the world. We hope you’re looking forward to seeing your favourites and checking out some of the new up and coming talent over a dram of Whyte & Mackay, SLANTIE!

THE GLASGOW TIMES STREETS AHEAD CAMPAIGN SUPPORTS THE MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN OF GLASGOW WHO HELP TRANSFORM THEIR LOCAL COMMUNITIES.

Previous winners include:

LOCAVORE
The Govanhill social enterprise sells local, organic and zero waste foods and goods from a shop and café on Victoria Road, delivers veg boxes to more than 1000 households and grows organic food which it supplies to other local cafes and shops. “We hope to offer an alternative to conventional supermarket supply chains which don’t look after the environment or society,” explains Locavore founder Reuben Chesters.

URBAN ROOTS
The Malls Mire Conservation Group, run by Urban Roots, is an urban woodland in Toryglen which has been transformed into a thriving community hub and Local Nature Reserve. It has turned a ‘no go’ area into a lovely woodland and wetland, with improved paths, free community events, outdoor learning and mental health programmes and more, and none of it would have been possible without the hard work of the weekly volunteer group.

ERICA QUINN
Erica’s “pocket-sized tenement front garden” is a source of great joy for her Kelvinside neighbours. Passers-by and locals alike stop to chat when she is tending the pots and plants, and its beauty is testament to the fact that when it comes to gardens, size isn’t everything. Erica says “Other gardeners love to stop and talk shop. I hope it encourages tenement owners to think outside the box when designing their own small garden areas.”

Get in touch to find out how your community group could benefit from being a part of Streets Ahead.
